WAGON TRAIN

Dear Wagon Train Riders,

Spring 2017

It's that time of year again! The 68th Annual Wagon Train through the Sierra Madre Mountains and American River Canyon to Placerville, California is waiting for you to sign up!

We gather on Sunday afternoon, June 4 at Amacker Ranch in South Lake Tahoe, CA. Our Wagon Master, Dianna Newborn, will join with us that evening to give an overview of our journey and provide specific information for the next day as she will do each evening of the Train.

You are in for a fun trip with gorgeous scenery! On Monday we head up to Echo Summit and down the west side of the Sierra Madres on Tuesday, following Highway 50 into the American River Canyon. Can you already smell the pine on the fresh, mountain air and feel the lulling motion of the wagons as horses pull us along the Roaring Road of the 1850 California Gold Rush?

On Thursday evening, we'll enjoy a delicious catered dinner at Fresh Pond and celebrate this year's winners of Association awards—the Wagon Train Queen and Princess as well as the Joe Campbell Award for outstanding service. On Friday, Pollock Pines welcomes us at the Community Center for family fun—period accurate dress encouraged but not required. On Saturday, we roll along Pony express Trail, steeped in history, and pass by several El Dorado County Vineyards on our way down into Placerville's Main Street and on to the End of the Trail at the Regal Theatres parking lot in Placerville.

To get signed up, please complete and return the following documents, available now on the "Wagon Train" page of our website: www.hwy50wagontrain.com:
